

Please do not weaken the strength of Wisconsin's no call list. It is nice to have supper with my family without being interrupted. It should be everyone's right not to have businesses bother us in our own homes. If I want to do business with a company, I'll contact them.